

Manchester School of the Arts

A ministry of First Baptist Church

“Enrichment, Excellence, Worship”

Manchester School of the Arts is a ministry of First Baptist Church offering instruction in music. Private lessons are held at First Baptist Church, taught by qualified and dedicated teachers.

Private Instruction: (children and adults)

*Piano *Voice *Organ (piano experience needed) *Accordion
*Woodwinds (flute, clarinet, saxophone) *Musical Theater
*Brass (trumpet, trombone, tuba, french horn) *Drums, Percussion
*Strings (violin, viola, cello) *Guitar (electric, acoustic, bass) *Ukulele

We recommend that children be at least 6 years old and able to read.*

Tuition:

- A $25.00 non-refundable registration fee must accompany your registration form. You will not be scheduled with a teacher until the form and the fee are submitted.
- Tuition for one half-hour Private lesson/week: $400.00/semester.
 - Fall Semester has 16 lessons, Spring Semester has 17 lessons.
 - Tuition may be paid in 5 payments of $80.00 each month of the semester, OR 4 payments of $100.00, payable the first 4 months of the semester.
- Please make checks payable to Manchester School of the Arts.
- Tuition is due on the first lesson of the month. Payments may be placed in the box located outside the Director's office (across from the Choir Room.)

Schedule:

- Fall Semester: August 7 – December 11.
Spring Semester: January 8 – May 10.
- When we receive your registration, you will be scheduled with a teacher, who will then contact you to arrange lesson time and day.

- Absences: Your teacher commits to being present and on time for the weekly lesson. Refunds cannot be given, and Make-up lessons cannot be guaranteed. If a student misses a lesson because of illness or emergency, a make-up lesson can be requested and worked out with the teacher, as the teacher's schedule permits. Make-ups can be requested for illness or emergency only. Lessons that are canceled without prior notice from the student will not be made up.
- Practice: Studying an instrument or studying voice involves skills that take time and patience to learn. We recommend a minimum of a one-year commitment to your lessons. Students will see growth when they commit to regular practice at home.
