Identifying Your Spiritual Gifts
Heart
Abilities
Personality
Experience

Congratulations on taking your next step toward Christ! By reviewing this S.H.A.P.E. inventory booklet, you've shown a desire to use your gifts, abilities, and passions for the glory of God—and that is an exciting next step!

We want you to know that God has created you and shaped your life in unique and wonderful ways so that you can experience the joy of His Kingdom "on Earth, as it is in Heaven" (Matthew 6:10). We all do different things to make a living, but we all have the same purpose...to use our talents, abilities, interests, personality, and experience to follow Jesus and to strengthen His Body (the Church) by making Christ-like disciples: locally, nationally, and globally. When we use our abilities for God's glory, we come to know God more fully as we obey Him, and He accomplishes His work through our lives.

One of our goals at North Ridge is to help people understand how God has shaped them, and to provide opportunities to use those gifts and abilities in ministry. In order for us to find your "best fit" in ministry, we need to know what S.H.A.P.E. you're in! To help you discover your S.H.A.P.E., please use this booklet as a worksheet to uncover your God-given gifts, passions, abilities, personalities, and experiences. Once you've worked through the booklet, you will find a form on the last page on which you may record your final results for each category.

The workbook is for you to keep and the form may be turned into the information table on Sunday or to the church office. Our goal is to have a ministry leader contact you as soon as possible upon receiving your form.

Wishing you His very best,

Pastor Doug

Discovering your unique God-Given S.H.A.P.E. to contribute in ministry and mission

You have chosen to experience "ID", designed to help you discover how God has shaped you to serve Him. God is actively working in your life and He wants you to understand and put into practice the full potential of who He's uniquely created you to be in His kingdom, for His purposes, for His glory.

God uniquely designed you for a specific purpose in His Kingdom.

"For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11 (NIV)

According to scripture, whatever your profession, your primary role in life is to contribute by investing your life in the mission and ministry of Jesus Christ

1. You have been created for missional living. " For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." Ephesians 2:10 (NIV)
2. You have been saved for missional living. "It is He who saved us and chose us for His holy work, not because we deserved it, but because that was His plan long before the world began..." 2 Timothy 1:9 (TLB)
3. You have been gifted for missional living. "As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God." 1 Peter 4:10 (NAS)
4. You have been challenged to live missionally. "Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus...(who) made Himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant..." Philippians 1:5-7 (NIV)
5. You will be rewarded for missional living. "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward." Colossians 3:23-24 (NIV)

Romans 12:1-8, I Corinthians 12-14, Ephesians 4:11-16, I Peter 4:7-11

"Now, about spiritual gifts, I do not want you to be ignorant." 1 Corinthians 12:1 (NIV)

What is a spiritual gift?

A spiritual gift is a special ability, given by the Holy Spirit to every believer at conversion.

"God has given each of you a gift from His great variety of spiritual gifts..." 1 Peter 4:10a (NLT)

Who receives spiritual gifts?

Every believer receives at least one spiritual gift.

"Each of you has your own gift from God; one has this gift, another has that."
1 Corinthians 7:7b (NIV)

Why does God give spiritual gifts?

God gives believers spiritual gifts to serve others. "...use them (gifts) well to serve one another."
1 Peter 4:10b (NLT)

Directions:

- Using the response sheet on the next page (tear it out if you would prefer), write your response to each statement in the block whose number corresponds to that numbered statement on the Spiritual Gift Assessment. Use the following scale:
3 = Consistently, definitely true 2 = Most of the time, usually true
1 = Some of the time, once in a while 0 = Not at all, never
- Important: Answer according to who you are, not who you would like to be or think you ought to be. How true are these statements of you? What has been your experience? To what degree do these statements reflect your usual tendencies?
- As you reflect on your responses, do so first in light of your ministry experiences and how God has used you in serving others. Vocational skills and natural talents will be explored in the next section.

There is no right or wrong passion. God has given to each of us a passion in order to move us in specific ways to address the various concerns of our heart (and His). When we are pursuing our passion, or the concerns He has placed in our heart, we are very focused and highly motivated. We are not denying the significance of other's passions by devoting our best energies to the issues God has placed on our heart.

Passion answers the "where" question. Have you ever asked yourself, "Where should I serve?" When people are serving in areas where they do not express their greatest emotional energies, they eventually lose their motivation to serve. Their enthusiasm for ministry melts. And it does not take long before the hearts of those around them begin to melt too. Understanding your passion breathes purpose and power into your life and into the lives of those around you.

This Passion Assessment has been designed to assist you in getting a clearer understanding of where your passions may be. Most of us have a number of concerns and yet value them differently. For our purposes here, seek to list those issues and concerns which weigh the heaviest upon your heart, in order to identify your greatest area of passion.

Your heart or passions are the things you love to do. You have a God-given passion or deep desire to do certain things. Conversely, there are also certain things that you hate to do.

Answering the following questions will help you identify your heart's desires, things you should pursue, and also things you dislike and should avoid.

If time and money were not an obstacle and you could do anything you wanted to do, what would you do? When you are dreaming about the future and what you would like to do "some day" what is that dream?

Share about a time your heart was broken by another person's difficult need or situation so much that you had to help. Is there a reoccurring theme in the moments your heart is stirred or angered by the difficult situations you see in our community and world?

What things have you done in the past that really excited you?

Talents/Skills are special abilities acquired at birth or learned skills through education or experience which have been developed into areas of competency.

List those talents, acquired skills and special abilities where you have developed some confidence and competence. Include task functions as well as relational abilities and roles in which you have attained a level of proficiency.

Abilities include both natural talents or aptitudes that you may have and special skills or knowledge you may have learned. An example of a natural talent is playing the piano by ear. An example of a special skill is playing the piano by reading the notes.

Answering the following questions will help you analyze your abilities.

What things do you do well naturally, that you have a natural aptitude for, that come very easy for you? (For example, organizing, building, creative, relational, repairing, solving problems, etc.)

What things are you able to do well because of special training, education, or practice? (For example, computer skills, musical instruments, drama, special events, leadership training, carpentry, etc.)

What things in the lists above do you also really enjoy doing and receive a sense of fulfillment in doing?

You've Got Personality!

1. Definition of Personality/Temperament

- The quality or fact of being a particular person
- Habitual patterns and qualities of behavior
- Distinctive individual qualities considered collectively
- One's customary frame of mind or natural disposition

2. There are four basic personality types/styles:

- Dominance/Choleric/Lion
- Influence/Sanguine/Otter
- Steadiness/Phlegmatic/Retriever
- Conscientiousness/Melancholy/Beaver

Guidelines for Using Personality Assessment Tools:

1. No person is a single common personality type.
2. There is not a right or wrong nor a best or worst personality type.
3. The purpose for identifying your personality type is to help you understand yourself and how to better relate to others.
4. The purpose for identifying personality types is neither to put people in little boxes nor to judge their behavior.
5. The discovery of your personality type is based on your point of view. It's how you see yourself.
6. This personality assessment tool is not a test. There is no right or wrong answer.
7. This personality assessment tool does not measure psychological behavior.
8. Choose an environment – home, work or school.
9. Don't desire to be a specific personality.
10. Be honest with your responses to get an accurate assessment.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS • HEART • ABILITIES • PERSONALITY • EXPERIENCES

All life experiences are used by God to prepare you for future ministry and success. God uses both the good and the bad experiences of life to teach you and to prepare you for what is ahead. Answering the following questions will help you identify life experiences that can be used effectively in future ministry.

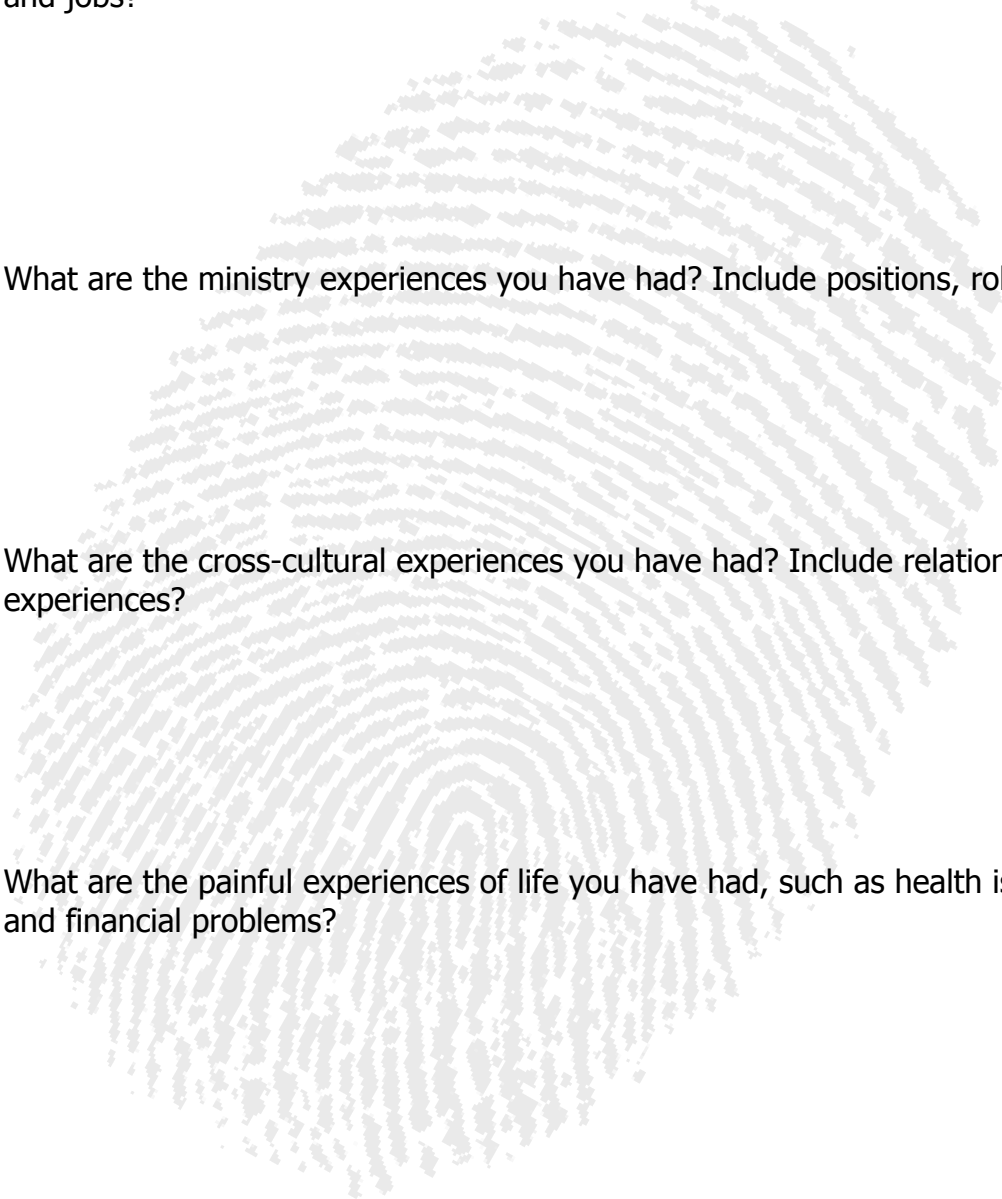

What are the educational experiences you have had? Include school, special training, and apprenticeships?

What are the vocational experiences you have had? Include fields of experience, types of work, and jobs?

What are the ministry experiences you have had? Include positions, roles, and types of ministries?

What are the cross-cultural experiences you have had? Include relationships and missions experiences?

What are the painful experiences of life you have had, such as health issues, broken relationships, and financial problems?
