

Revolution Student Ministry Conduct and Safety Guidelines

(Please read and discuss with your student)

Romans 12:1: "Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship."

Recognizing that we are ambassadors of Christ and this church and, as such, our actions and words provide either a good or bad example, each young person participating in FBGulfport Student activities of any sort is expected to abide by the following Conduct and Safety Guidelines. This includes church members, regular attendees, and visitors. Above all, remember that your words and actions should reflect Christ. By participating in student group activities you represent Christ, this Church, your parents, and yourself. What you say and do has impact on others; it is our desire that your impact will be a positive one.

Please read and sign:

- No possession or use of alcohol, drugs, or tobacco
- Keep a positive attitude
- No students can drive
- No fighting, weapons, fireworks, lighters, or explosives
- No offensive or immodest clothing
- No boys in girls' sleeping quarters and no girls in boys' sleeping quarters
- Participation in ALL activities
- Respect property
- Show respect for everyone with whom you come in contact, by your actions and your words. This includes members of your group as well as those outside of it.
- Reach out to new people as well as other students
- Respect and comply with event schedules and rules
- Public displays of affection while at church functions are inappropriate. This includes "hanging on" someone, excessive hugging, hand-holding, kissing, sharing a seat, or other obviously "romantic" behavior.
- For the safety and well-being of all, every meeting and event has physical boundaries. Stay within those boundaries.
- Students who fail to comply with these expectations may be sent home at their parents' expense.
