Discussion

Read the passage and answer the following questions as a group.

In 1 Peter, we see his heart has been transformed from his experience with Jesus. What heart transformation have you noticed in yourself as you've grown in your relationship with God?

What does sharing our hope with gentleness and respect look like? How would it look without them?

If you've had, or might have, an opportunity to give a reason for your hope, what would you say? What experiences have you had that allow you to have the confidence in your hope and faith in Jesus?
