The Purpose of the Cross: Reconciliation

Colossians: 1: 15-22

Getting started

Growing up kids will get upset and say to another kid, “I’m never talking to you again”. If you said this, how long did that promise last?

Discussion

Read the passage and answer the following questions as a group.

Have you ever experienced reconciliation in a relationship? If so, how did it feel once it occurred? What makes reconciliation challenging?

Has there been a time when you ever needed to reconcile even though you’d done nothing wrong? Why did you do it? Why did God reconcile himself to us?

Very few people would say they are “enemies of God”, but our actions often contradict that belief. How can we better align our actions to show we are led by God?
