Ministry teams are important because they allow people to work together using their unique gifts and talents to serve others effectively. By sharing responsibilities, supporting one another, and pursuing a common mission, ministry teams help strengthen the church, build relationships, and create a greater impact than individuals can achieve alone.

To help our church family better understand and appreciate the many ways God is at work through our ministries, we are launching a weekly Ministry Spotlight. Each week, we will highlight one of our ministry Teams (previously known as Committees) or a stand-alone ministry, sharing its purpose, activities, and opportunities for involvement. Our hope is to increase awareness, celebrate those who serve, and encourage others to discover ways they can use their gifts to support the mission of our church.

Let us explore our Women’s Ministry Team!

What is their primary purpose? Their desire is to guide women closer to the heart of God, and while pursuing their relationship with Abba, they will discover His extraordinary plan to live abundant and gratifying lives! They aim to engage, encourage, and enrich the lives of women all ages through Bible study, fun gatherings, special events, and intentional discipleship.

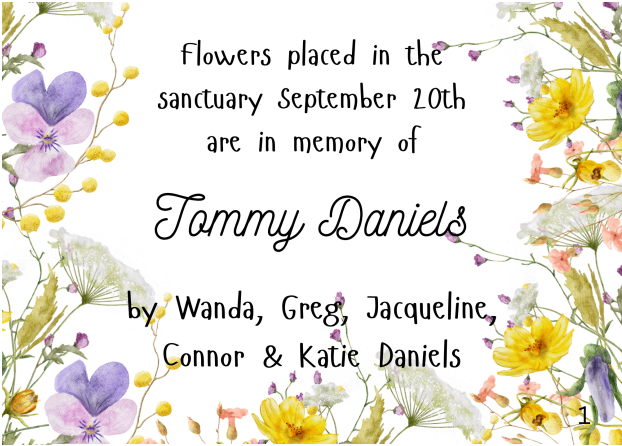

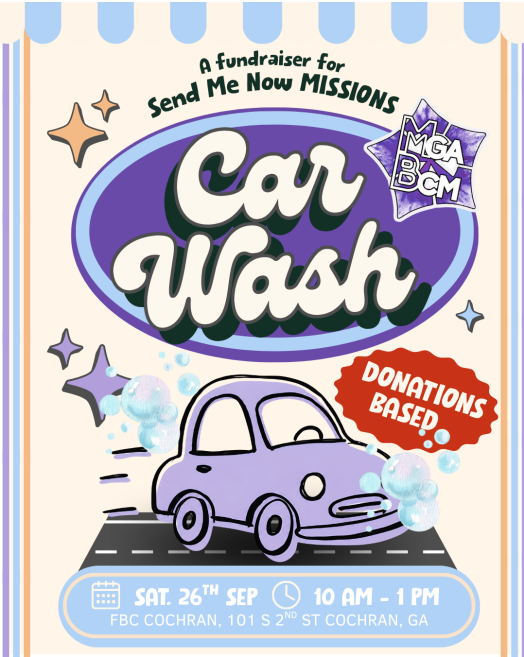

How does this Ministry support the overall mission of FBC Cochran? They are prayerfully guiding our women’s ministry in its mission to help the ladies at First Baptist Cochran deepen their connections with God, each other, and with the community they serve.

What ministry accomplishments may be unknown to our church? They have been working this summer to plan events around their primary purpose. Many of their large events are focused on making and strengthening connections with our sisters at FBC. They feel it is important to the life of our church body that they provide intentional times in which they, as women, can laugh, cry, share, and learn together. Women are often segmented by age or worship style and may not have an opportunity within the regular worship schedule to get to know sisters who are not in our worship circles. Women’s events provide an opportunity for us to bridge gaps and come together as sisters in Christ so that we can strengthen the bonds that can make our large, diverse and often unwieldy church a more unified, single-minded group, ready to work cohesively to accomplish God’s purposes in our lives and the lives of our community.

What is something people may not know about this Ministry? This year they planned a Mahjong class, a trip to Gatlinburg for a women’s conference, Friendsgiving, an ornament exchange, dinner at I Heart Taco, and a Mother’s Day breakfast to name a few of our relationally focused events. We are also planning some events that will incorporate community outreach, and we hope to provide several Bible study opportunities as well.

How can church members get involved? Ladies can join the mailing list by going to the FBC website and navigating to the women’s ministry page, scrolling down to the “Get our Latest Updates” option and following the link. They would love to have as many of our sisters as possible involved in our Women’s Ministry. In fact, they are looking for ladies who would like to lead a Bible Study this year. They are always open to your suggestions and feedback, and they would love to help you find a way to serve through this ministry. Whatever your gift, there is a place for you in the Women’s Ministry at FBC!

Who should people contact if they would like more information? Jessica Bennett, Melissa Blankenship, Crystal Collins, Devan Garrett, Andrea Floyd, and Ciarra Warren.
