CAMPER CODE OF CONDUCT

Our goal is to provide your child with a positive, fun, and spiritually nurturing camp experience. This Code of Conduct prohibits (but is not limited to) the following behaviors:

1. Possession, use or distribution of an illegal or controlled substance, look-alike drug, or alcoholic beverage.
2. Possession of a weapon.
3. Theft of property.
4. Intentional, willful, or wanton destruction of property.
5. Fighting or behavior construed as bullying.

Consequences for violations of the Camper Code of Conduct include, but are not limited to, time out, exclusion from activities, notification of parents, and removal from the program. If removal from the program is deemed necessary, parents are responsible for picking their child up from Camp.

PUBLICITY RELEASE

Participation of your child in the camp program implies permission for Joy of Living to use photographic or video images of the camper for future promotion of camp activities.
