MORNING: I will recount the loving-kindnesses of the Lord, and the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord, according to all that the Lord has bestowed on us. (Isaiah 63:7a)

Can you not see this? Are there no mercies which you have experienced? Even though you are gloomy now, have you forgotten that blessed hour when Jesus met you and said "Come Unto Me"? Can you not remember that rapturous moment when He snapped your fetters, dashed your chains to the earth, and said "I came to break your bonds and set you free"? Or if the love of your espousals be forgotten, there must surely be some precious milestone along the road of life, not quite grown over with moss, on which you can read a happy memorial of His mercy towards you? Or did you never have a sickness like the one which you are suffering from now, and did He not restore you? Where you never poor before, and did He not supply your wants? Were you never in dire straits before... and did He not deliver you? Arise... go to the river of your experience, and pull up a few bulrushes, and plant them into an ark, wherein your infant-faith may float safely on the stream. Forget not what your God has done for you: turn over the book of your remembrance, and consider the days of old. Can you not remember the hill Mizar? Did the Lord never meet you at Hermon? Have you never climbed the Delectable Mountains? Have you never been helped in time of need? No, I know that you have. Go back, then, a little ways Continued on page 2

to the choice mercies of yesterday, and though all may be dark now, light up the lamps of the past, they shall glitter through the darkness, and you shall trust in the Lord till the day break and the shadows flee away. "Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy loving-kindnesses, for they have been ever of old.

EVENING: "Do we then by faith make the law of no effect, overthrow it or make it a dead letter? Certainly not! On the contrary, we confirm, establish and uphold the Law. (Romans 3:31)

When the believer is adopted into the Lord's family, his relationship to old Adam and the law ceases at once: but then he is under a new rule, and a new covenant. Believer, you are God's Child: it is your first duty to obey your Heavenly Father. A servile spirit you have nothing to do with: you are not a slave, but a child, and now, inasmuch as you are a beloved child, you are bound to obey your Father's faintest wish, the least intimation of His will. Does He bid you fulfil a sacred ordinance? It is at your peril that you neglect it, for you will be disobeying your Father. Does He command you to seek the image of Jesus? Is it not your joy to do so? Does Jesus tell you, "Be ye perfect, even as your Father which is in Heaven is perfect"? Then not because the law commands, but because your Savior enjoins, you will to be perfect in holiness. Does He bid His saints to love one another? Do it, not because the law says, "Love thy neighbor," but because Jesus says, "If you love me, keep my commandments." and this is the commandment that He has given unto you, "that you love one another." Are you told to distribute to the poor? Do it, not because charity is a burden which you dare not shirk, but because Jesus teaches, "Give to him that asks of thee." Does the Word say, "Love God with all your heart"? Look at the commandment and reply, "Ah! commandment, Christ has fulfilled you already — I have no need, therefore, to fulfil thee for my salvation, but I rejoice to yield obedience to you because God is my Father now and He has a claim upon me, which I would not dispute." May the Holy Spirit make your heart obedient to the constraining power of Christ's love that your prayers may be, "Make me to go in the paths of thy commandments; for therein do I delight." Grace is the mother and nurse of holiness, not the apologist of sin!
