

MEMBERSHIP COVENANTS

A Church's Covenants

We believe that right doctrine spurs us on to action. “Not only hearers but doers of the Word.” Covenants are promises we make to ourselves, to one another in the church, and to God to live in light of the gospel. The covenants are not laws we tag on to the end of the gospel, but serve as commitments to live for Christ and keep each other accountable in a fallen world.

Our Confession of Faith expresses what we know and believe to be clear in Scripture. Our Covenants express what we intend to do and how we agree to live in light of Scripture.

The following covenants are what an incoming member pledges to the church, and the church pledges to the incoming member.

Our Membership Covenants

Will you protect the unity of the church?

- Always acting in grace towards other members.

Will you walk together in brotherly love?

- Exercising care and watchfulness over each other and faithfully building one another up.

Will you commit to gathering together?

- Attending faithfully to give of my time, talents, and treasures to encourage one another to love and good deeds.

Will you serve the ministry of the church?

- In the name of Jesus, in spreading the Gospel among all peoples.
