

Observations and Questions:

Observation 1: The woman must have had a grace encounter with Jesus.

Question: Do we respond to God's grace with gratitude?

Observation 2: Her response ignores the protocols of the day.

Question: Are we concerned more with conformity and optics than true expression of our gratitude to God's grace?

Observation 3) The disciples fault with her is displaced.

Question: When is our criticism displaced?

Observation 4) Jesus recognizes that special life moments should supersede daily moments.

Question: Do we miss the special moments because we are distracted by our busyness?

Bonus Question: Does our fear of scarcity keep us from enjoying the present moment? What commodity are we hoarding?