

Because of Jesus' _____, everything had changed.

Question: Is the _____ the most important truth in our life? Are we like those first Easter people, who know that the very hinge of our story bends on Christ's
_____?

CS Lewis: "The _____, if false, is of _____ importance, and if true, of _____ importance. The only thing it cannot be is _____ important."

If Jesus had not died and rose again, we would have no _____ of life beyond this temporal realm.

When we come upon hopeless situations in our life, we don't _____, because we remember the _____ of Christ.

We are _____ People!