

Our first colossal lesson from the book of Colossians is this: It's all about

_____.

Our question today is this, "Is this our view of _____?"

Are our lives really all about _____?

It is all about _____ not only in our individual lives, but also as we gather as the church.

If we come together as a church and expect less than _____, we will certainly get less.

Why is it all about _____?

It's all about _____ because God has designed our very lives around him.

_____ is the seminal point of all that God is doing.
