

As we study Colossians, we are learning _____ lessons, lessons that are vital for our life as Christians.

Today, we continue with another great lesson from Colossians: We all _____ for somebody.

What does the Bible say about work? The Bible lifts up work as _____, and that we all work for somebody.

The greatest work of God is not done in church sanctuaries by ordained _____, but rather in places of _____ by those who take Jesus from here and _____ him outside these walls.

What really matters is the person we work for, _____. The reality is that there is a claim on our life, and we are all called to _____ for him, our _____.
