

As we study Colossians, we are learning colossal lessons, lessons that are vital for our life as Christians.

Today, we continue with another great lesson from Colossians: It matters what we wear.

Why? Because others discern who we are by what we wear.

It matters what we wear spiritually as well.

Paul tells us we should clothe ourselves in compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, patience, and most of all love.

Where do we shop for these clothes? We get them from the store of grace.

As the church, as the people of God, when others see us, they see how we are representing God. What are people seeing?