

Question: What does it mean to _____ our commitment to God?

_____ our commitments is not about doing the right things, it is about _____ to be in relationship, with God and with others.

If commitment is only about doing
_____, about doing a list of what we say we are going to do, then we will all _____ at that.

But if commitment is about _____,
and truly wanting for another, then even though we might fail at doing all that we say we will do, we will be well because true _____ have a net called
_____.

The good news is that the more we reflect God's _____ with each other, the more we are concerned with _____ over
_____, the more we actually get

_____, and the more _____ we give our commitments.

Too often we get _____ in our commitment with God, and we “lose the forest for the trees.”

If we strive to love God, then we will _____ our commitment to God, and will be compelled to do _____ for God.