

Wesley, in the carol, “Hark! The Herald Angels Sing” is sharing in those phrases the “why” of Christmas: the incarnation of Christ.

What is the incarnation? The incarnation is the embodiment of God, which we Christians believe happened in the person of Jesus Christ.

We in Christmas celebrate more than just a baby born in Bethlehem; we celebrate the incarnate deity, Emmanuel, God with us.

What do we learn about God through the incarnation of Jesus?

1) We learn of a God who will go to any lengths to have a relationship with us.

2) We learn of a God who will do anything to remove the barrier of sin between us and God.

3) We learn of a God who desires for us to be a part of God's kingdom future, sharing in the joy that comes from sharing the gospel of Christ.
