

Wesley, in the carol, "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing" is sharing in those phrases the "why" of Christmas: the _____ of Christ.

What is the _____? The _____ is the embodiment of God, which we Christians believe happened in the person of _____.

We in Christmas celebrate more than just a baby born in Bethlehem; we celebrate the _____ deity, _____, God with us.

What do we learn about God through the _____ of Jesus?

1) We learn of a God who will go to _____ lengths to have a _____ with us.

2) We learn of a God who will do _____ to remove the barrier of _____ between us and God.

3) We learn of a God who _____ for us to be a part of God's kingdom future, sharing in the _____ that comes from sharing the _____ of Christ.