

It is a _____ to think we can “trouble proof” our lives. It is not “_____” troubles will come in our lives, but “_____” troubles will come into our lives.

One of two things happens when trouble comes our way, either we focus _____ toward ourselves, or we focus _____ toward God.

Daniel and his friends _____ that God would provide a way from them to not just survive, but _____ in the tough times.

Through this _____, Daniel and his friends actively looked for God’s _____ in the midst of trouble.

In times of trouble, we must _____ in God. We must _____ that God can give us the grace to find _____ and _____, even when everything around us is _____ and in

_____.

Finally, as we _____ in God, God's _____ comes through.