

It is a fallacy to think we can “trouble proof” our lives. It is not “if” troubles will come in our lives, but “when” troubles will come into our lives.

Three truths we can learn from this story:

Truth #1 - God sometimes does not respond to our prayers in the way we want God to respond.

Truth #2 - Bad things happen and God sometimes does not rescue us from them.

Truth #3 - No matter what we go through, God is with us.
