

Hymns are theological treatises set to music. Hymns help form our thoughts about our relationship with God and with each other.

The hymns that we sing this morning teach us about depending daily on God.

The point of the Christian life is not doing good but rather trusting in God to enable us to do God's will.

What happens when we begin to trust in God and not ourselves?

We are strengthened in power.

We are rooted in love.

The grace that has brought us to this place, the grace that saved us from our sins, is the very same grace that can transform us, if we trust in him.
