

How did the church go astray? The church had moved away from the revelation of God, the _____, that is embodied by Christ, and that is recorded in _____.

In the Leipzig Debate (1519), Luther declared that Scripture _____ was the basis of Christian belief.

What caused the _____?

Many historians would say it was the _____ of Luther. However, the real cause of the reformation was the corrective _____ that came from the persistent sharing of the _____ of God.

John Wesley, founder of Methodism, declared himself to be a "homo unius libri" - man of one _____.

What do we learn from the study of the reformation?

1) Cultural Christianity, Christianity _____ from the living with Scripture, will _____ from God's purposes.

2) Only through living with Scripture can we, through God's Spirit, _____ what is sound _____.