

What does it mean to have a _____ connection with another in a world where most of our connecting is _____?

Why do we fail to _____ connect?
Because we are _____ of what people might see if they truly see us.

Yet, when we fail to _____ connect, either with God or with others, we fail to be truly _____ by anyone.

Question: Who truly _____ you?

Why do we settle for _____ connections when God calls us to _____ connect with him and each other?

When it comes to sin, it is not a question about how _____ or how _____, but rather about how _____ we are of it.

Our _____ keeps us _____ to our sin.

What we learn from the unnamed woman is that when we are _____ in our relationships, we receive the _____ necessary to be transformed.