

Hymns are theological treatises set to music. Hymns help form our thoughts about our relationship with God and with each other.

The hymns that we sing this morning teach us about salvation.

Too often we talk about salvation in terms of what you and I do, but salvation is ultimately God's work, we only accept what God has already done for us.

“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God— not the result of works, so that no one may boast.” — Ephesians 2:8-9

Why does God save us? Because he loves us. Love is what powers God's salvation.

Every day is another day when we decide to trust in God and not ourselves. As the Apostle Paul says “now is the acceptable time; see,

now is the day of salvation!” — 2 Corinthians 6:2b
