

Sermon Notes

1 Kings 12:1-14; Proverbs 1:5, 3:7, 11:14, 12:15, 13:10, 15:22, 19:20, 28:26

Take _____ to weigh the _____.

_____ others into your _____ making process.

When _____ are high, _____ is low.

Choose someone who has nothing to _____ or _____ by telling you the _____.

Choose people who are _____ you want to be in _____.

Ask _____ than _____ person.

Choose someone you _____ and someone you don't _____.

Go into the conversation _____ and _____ to the fact that God may _____ to you.

Are any of these options outside the _____ of God's word or His _____?

What is the _____ thing to do?

MY NOTES | OBSERVATIONS | QUESTIONS

Discussion Guide

1. What is one thing from the message that stood out, challenged, or stretched you this week?
2. Share a time when you wanted to know God's will for you in a specific situation and you went to someone for advice. What insight did they offer? What did you do with the advice, follow or ignore it? How did the situation turn out? Share your story.
3. Why is it sometimes difficult to remain objective when trying to discern God's will in different situations? How might inviting someone else into the process help? Share your thoughts.
4. Do you find it difficult to invite someone into the process when seeking clarity on decisions? Why or why not? Share your thoughts.
5. What decisions are you facing now or this week where you could use wise counsel to help you discern God's will? Who might you invite into the decision-making process with you and why? What is your best next to include them? Share with the group so we can pray for you.
6. Take a few minutes to SOAP through one of the passages referenced in the message today. These are found on the top of the notes page. You may want to include verses before/after the passage listed too. Share your insights with the group.

Scripture:

Observations:

Application:

Prayer:

Prayer Requests: