HYMN: "Great Is Thy Faithfulness"

Hymnal pg 32

Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new morning: great is your faithfulness. Lamentations 3:22,23

1. Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father,
there is no shadow of turning with thee;
thou changest not, thy compassions, they fail not;
as thou hast been, thou forever wilt be.

CHORUS

Great is thy faithfulness! Great is thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see;
all I have needed thy hand hath provided;
great is thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me!

2. Summer and winter and spring-time and harvest,
sun, moon, and stars in their courses above;
join with all nature in manifold witness to thy great faithfulness, mercy, and love.

CHORUS

3. Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth, thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide,
strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

CHORUS

We Believe (Apostle's Creed)

CHORUS

We believe in one true God, Father, Spirit, Son;
One Church, one faith, one Lord of all
His Kingdom come.

1. We believe in God the Father, Almighty Lord of life;
Creator of the Heavens, the earth, the sea, the sky.
And we believe in Jesus, the only Son of God
Born of the virgin Mary who lived as one of us.

CHORUS

2. We believe that Jesus suffered, was beaten, crucified;
He died and He was buried, entombed in darkest night.
The third day rose victorious, ascended into Heaven,
will one day come to judge us, the living and the dead.

CHORUS

3. We believe in God the Spirit, one Church empowered by Him;
Communion of God's people, forgiveness of our sin.
Our bodies resurrected to everlasting life;
to worship, love and wonder before the throne of Christ.

CELEBRATION

PSALTER READING: Psalm 92

Susan Kammerer

A psalm. A song. For the Sabbath day.

It is good to praise the Lord and make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your faithfulness at night, to the music of the ten-stringed lyre and the melody of the harp.

For you make me glad by your deeds, O Lord; I sing for joy at the works of your hands.

How great are your works, O Lord, how profound your thoughts!

The senseless man does not know, fools do not understand, that though the wicked spring up like grass and all evildoers flourish, they will be forever destroyed.

But you, O Lord, are exalted forever.

For surely your enemies, O Lord, surely your enemies will perish; all evildoers will be scattered.

You have exalted my horn like that of a wild ox; fine oils have been poured upon me.

My eyes have seen the defeat of my adversaries; my ears have heard the rout of my wicked foes.

The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon; planted in the house of the Lord, they will flourish in the courts of our God.

They will still bear fruit in old age, they will stay fresh and green, proclaiming, “The Lord is upright; he is my Rock, and there is no wickedness in him.”

PREPARATION

HYMN: “All the Way My Savior Leads Me” Hymnal pg 605

1. All the way my Savior leads me; what have I to ask beside?
Can I doubt his tender mercy, who through life has been my guide?
Heavenly peace, divinest comfort, here by faith in him to dwell;
for I know, what e’er befall me, Jesus doeth all things well;
for I know, what e’er befall me, Jesus doeth all things well.
2. All the way my Savior leads me, cheers each winding path I tread, gives me grace for every trial, feeds me with the living bread.
Though my weary steps may falter, and my soul athirst may be,
gushing from the rock before me, lo, a spring of joy I see;
gushing from the rock before me, lo, a spring of joy I see!
3. All the way my Savior leads me, O the fulness of his love!
Perfect rest to me is promised in my Father’s house above;
when my spirit, clothes, immortal, wings its flight to realms of day,
this my song through endless ages; Jesus led me all the way;
this my song through endless ages; Jesus led me all the way!

HYMN: "Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling"

Hymnal pg 479

He calls his own sheep by name. John 10:3

1. Softly and tenderly Jesus is calling,
calling for you and for me;
see, on the portals he's waiting and watching,
watching for you and for me.

CHORUS

Come home, come home,
ye who are weary, come home;
earnestly, tenderly, Jesus is calling,
calling, O sinner come home!

3. Time is now fleeting, the moments are passing,
passing from you and from me;
shadows are gathering, death beds are coming,
coming for you and for me.

CHORUS

4. Oh! For the wonderful love he has promised,
promised for you and for me;
though we have sinned, he has mercy and pardon,
pardon for you and for me.

All the Way My Savior Leads Me

1875

When Fanny Crosby wrote, “All the way my Savior leads me, What have I to ask beside?” she was expressing her own testimony of God’s guidance. Even her blindness, she realized, was part of His plan. When Fanny was about 6 weeks old, her parents realized, with alarm, that something was wrong with her eyes. Since the local doctor was away, the Crosbys found a man who claimed to be a physician. He put hot poultice on the baby’s inflamed eyes, insisting it would draw out the infection. The infection did clear up, but white scars appeared and in the months that followed the baby registered no response to objects held before her. She could discern day from night, but her vision was gone.

As a child, Fanny memorized whole sections of the Bible, the four Gospels, all of Proverbs and vast portions of other books. Whenever she wanted to “read” a passage, she just turned there in her mental “Bible” and read it verbatim. “This Holy Book,” she said when she was 85, “has nurtured my entire life.”

Years later, Fanny viewed her blindness as a special gift from God, believing He has given her a particular “soul-vision” which equipped her for a special work. “It was the best thing that could have happened to me,” she declared. “How in the world could I have lived such a helpful life had I not between blind?” “Don’t blame the doctor,” Fanny said on another occasion. “He is probably dead by this time, but if I could meet him, I would tell me that he unwittingly did me the greatest favor in the world.”

Though this hymn expressed Fanny’s lifelong testimony, it was prompted by a specific incident in 1874. One day she didn’t have enough money to pay her rent. Just as she committed the matter to God in prayer, a stranger appeared at her door and pressed a ten-dollar bill in her hand before disappearing. It was the very amount needed. That night, she wrote the words to “All the Way My Savior Leads Me.”
