

Sharing Christ with students in Lithuania

Brian and Erin Bronsink have been called to serve at LCC International University (LCC) in Lithuania focusing on sharing the gospel to its diverse student body. By providing Christ-centered classes, educators can help shape the worldview of students and prompt them to ask deeper questions of eternal value.

Students at LCC come from a variety of faith backgrounds, and they seek to help students develop a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and encounter Him in new ways by embedding truth into course content. Erin teaches full-time for the English Department and Brian leads a small group in Alpha to walk students through the basics of the Bible. Brian and Erin also enjoy having students over to their home as part of their hospitality ministry.

Come to church early or stay late to hear them speak about their ministry on Sunday, July 27th at 10:05 am in the fellowship hall.
