

Delaware End-of-Life Options Act

Sunday, January 11th 10AM

LPC Library

On January 1st, House Bill 140: The Delaware End-of-Life Options Act will go into effect allowing patients with a terminal disease to end their lives with medications prescribed by their physicians.

The Adult SS Class will meet at 10am in the LPC Library to discuss:

- What are the basics of the new law.
- What is the psychology of suffering?
- What do the advocates claim?
- What do the opponents claim?
- What are the medical ethics involved?
- What are the Christian ethics involved?

Dr. Michael Salvatore will facilitate the discussion.
