Plans for This Summer's Pastoral Transition

Last year, following Buz's announcement that he intended to retire on June 30, 2018, the Session decided to move directly to the call of a new, permanent pastor rather than an interim pastor. Moreover, the Session directed the Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC) to delay the call of a new pastor until at least the fall of 2018 to provide an intentional gap between Buz, our pastor of 26 years, and the new pastor. To that end, the PNC has arranged for five supply pastors to lead our worship services from July 1 through the end of August. Most of these pastors have preached at LPC in the past.

The first supply pastor, the Rev. Jeff Wildrick, will lead worship on July 1, but has also agreed to be our short-term interim pastor from September 2 through the end of October. Rev. Wildrick retired a year ago as Senior Pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Dunellen, NJ. As pastor of one of the first churches to join ECO, he gave a presentation to LPC members in 2012 as we considered whether to join ECO. He also visited with us at the meeting when we officially joined ECO in 2015. You will hear more of Jeff's plans for the fall later.

The Rev. John Groth, Retired USAF Captain, will preach on July 8 and August 5

The Rev. Michael Lyle, pastor of Grace Ridge Church (ECO) in Honesdale, PA (Tim Westgate's home church), will preach on July 15th.

The Rev. Susannah Tulloch, Chaplain Major Air National Guard, will preach on July 22.

The Rev. Susan Goodenough, Assistant Pastor and Director VIP Youth Ministries at White Clay Creek Presbyterian Church, will preach on July 29, August 12, and August 26.

The Deacons will lead the service on August 19.

The Rev. Jeff Wildrick will then join us as a half-time pastor for the months of September and October and will preach each Sunday.

We hope you will join us over this summer and early fall as we continue to worship and praise our Lord and Savior and as we prepare to welcome our new pastor.
