GUEST SPEAKERS | LAC VISION TRIP

As many of you know, LAC is sending a team of key leaders on a vision trip to pursue an additional overseas partnership for Jesus and His kingdom. While they're away, we're excited to welcome two guest speakers who will continue our series on what it means to be a follower of Jesus.

On Sunday, July 5, Rev. Alan Rathbun will lead the teaching. He's an LBC grad with roots at LAC from his college days.

On Sunday, July 12, Dr. Rick Rhoads will lead the teaching. Dr. Rhoads is the current president of BCM (Bible Centered Ministries) and previously served with distinction as a faculty member and campus leader at Lancaster Bible College.

LAC NEXT GEN | PRESCHOOL

June was a month of change in LAC preschool, and the kids handled it like champs. Thank you to all our volunteers—we couldn't run the preschool hallway without you!

This summer, we're pausing our usual themes to go through Old Testament stories, picking up where Noah left off. After covering Abraham, Sarah, and Isaac, July will bring lessons on Abraham & Lot, Sodom & Gomorrah, Rebekah, and Jacob. We're using the Trueway Kids curriculum—feel free to view the lessons online to discuss with your kids at home.

View the July volunteer schedule HERE. A few updates:

- Class names are changing: "Seedlings," "Sprouts," "Saplings," and "Sycamores" are being replaced. For now, 9:45 service classes will be Nursery & Preschool, and 11:00 service classes will be Baby, Nursery, 2-3 year olds, and 4-5 year olds.
- Scheduling reminders are moving to Planning Center. You'll receive emails from this program instead of from us directly—check your spam folder if you haven't seen them. Reach out anytime if you need help navigating the new system!
