God Is Growing Something Good

"The Lord has done great things for us; we are glad."
Psalm 126:3

October arrives with cooler mornings, falling leaves, and the first real sense that a new season has taken hold. The rush of August has settled into rhythm.

Classrooms have found their pace. Families have found their routines. And if we pause long enough to look around, we can see that God has already been at work among us in ways that are worth celebrating.

It is easy to move from one Sunday to the next without noticing the fruit. Ministry can feel ordinary when you are in the middle of it. Yet Scripture calls us to remember. The Lord has done great things for us, and gladness is the right response. What we have watched unfold these first weeks of the school year is not the result of clever programming or human effort alone. It is evidence that God is still drawing people to Himself in Grandview.

Consider what He has already done. More than sixty-five children are now enrolled in LifeWise Academy, which means sixty-five students are hearing about Jesus every week during the school day. When LifeWise asked the community to give $6,000 toward a new bus so that growth could be accommodated, the need was met in just a few hours. That kind of generosity is not accidental. It is a picture of a church and a town that still believe children matter and the gospel is worth the cost.

We are also watching faith take root in real time.

Students are professing new faith in Jesus on Wednesday nights. Hundreds of students gathered across Grandview's three campuses for See You at the Pole, standing publicly to pray for their schools, their friends, and their town. Children's Day Out is once again at max capacity and off to another strong start. These are not small things. They are signs that the next generation is being reached, and that families are trusting this church with some of what is most precious to them.

The same grace is at work among adults. Three new couples have completed the new member class, with three more already signed up for the next one. At our mission fair, many people expressed interest in Grow Groups and in serving across our ministries. The body is not standing still. People are stepping in, finding their place, and saying yes to walking with Jesus alongside His church.

None of this requires us to take credit. Paul wrote that one plants, another waters, but God gives the growth. Our part is faithfulness. God's part is fruit. The beauty of this season is that celebration and calling belong together. We give thanks for what He has done, and we stay ready for what He still intends to do.

I want to challenge each of us to keep leaning in. Pray for the students who are hearing the gospel at LifeWise and on Wednesday nights. Encourage the families who are new among us. Join a Grow Group. Talk with a ministry leader about where you can serve. Invite a neighbor to worship. The same Lord who has already done great things is not finished with FBC Grandview.

Fall may be a season of fading leaves, but it does not have to be a season of fading faith. Let's keep our eyes open to the harvest God is already producing. May FBC Grandview be known as a place where children meet Jesus, families find a home, new members are welcomed, and the church gives thanks because the Lord has done great things for us.

Your Pastor, Corey Cornutt

Children's Ministry Minute

Hello Church Family, and HAPPY OCTOBER! This is my ABSOLUTE favorite time of the year. It brings cooler weather, yummy treats, and all the festivities. By this point, we are rolling through the beginning of the school year and all the madness that entails, and moving on to the holiday season. Not busy at all...

With that said, the Children's Ministry is looking forward to our annual Fall Festival. We will be hosting a Trunk-or-Treat on October 31st, from 4-6 PM. If you would like to help out, we need volunteers to sign-up to host a trunk and pass out candy. There is a sign-up sheet on the Church Website under the Events tab, or you can see me (Lindsay Farmer).

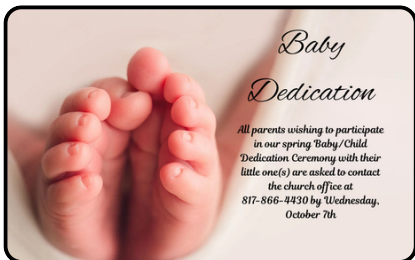

Thank you for your love and support and please keep the Children's Ministry in your thoughts and prayers.

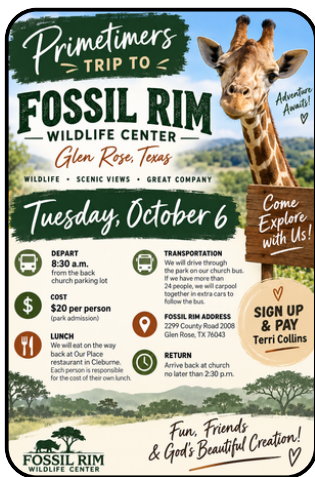

Blessings,
Lindsay
