WHY WE GIVE

One of the things that I'm most convinced of here at St. Matthew's is that we have all that we need to do everything God has called us to. One of the comments I've heard over and over again in this past year is this: "I know that what I can do matters." Not only does what you do, or give matter, but it is also needed. So many of you have taken a step in giving this year. If you have, thank you. In this brochure, you can see the tangible things your gift of offering can accomplish. If you haven't taken that step, NOW is the time to do it. We have all we need here at St. Matthew's. Let us live into this abundance.
