Jamie Selvaggi
Teacher's Aide

After volunteering for a while, Jamie officially joined Bethel Church Preschool as an aide in January 2013. Jamie loves sharing God and his love with the children who attend the preschool. She especially loves the opportunities she gets to pray with students and their families. Jamie lives in South Franklin Township. She is the mother of three great children: Hannah, Andrew, and Grace.

Rosemary Fincham
Teacher's Aide

Rosie has been a member of Bethel Presbyterian Church for many years. At home Rosie has 2 dogs, 2 birds, 2 horses, and lots of fish. She loves her family of pets and they keep her very busy! Rosie enjoys working with children at the preschool. She loves their affection and smiles. Rosie enjoys sharing the love of the Lord with the preschool students every day.

Autumn Lucas
Teacher's Aide

Autumn is a longtime member of Bethel Church. Autumn enjoys working with children and joined BCP in 2017. Autumn loves pets and has a dog and cat. Her hobbies include crafting, camping, and baking. Autumn has worked with kids through church and school for many years.

Who We Are

About Us

Bethel Church Preschool is a ministry to our community. We recognize that each child is a unique person created by God. Our preschool atmosphere is one of trust, respect, faith, and love.
