

Cliff Notes.....

Sunday our church voted to call Jared Poulton to serve as our Associate Pastor for Children and Families. Thanks for your prayers for the search process and for the strong vote to call. Now in four weeks our pastoral staff will be fully staffed. I look forward to welcoming Jared, Kerry, Riley and Oliver to our church family.

Sunday we will again look at Philippians in the morning and I Corinthians in the evening service, as we consider the Apostle Paul's description of the Christian life to which our Lord calls us. I hope to see you twice on the Lord's Day!

Memorial Military Bricks

—Another engraving of memorial bricks is planned for mid March. If you would like to place an engraved brick with the name of your loved one or friend who was or is today a member of First Baptist Church, who served or is serving honorably in America's Armed Forces, the engraving cost is $40.00. Come by the church office and pay the $40.00 and give us the name. Our first set of bricks have been placed in our memorial, be sure to stop by and take a look.

All students must turn in a $100 deposit in order to be added to the list. If you have any questions please contact me! We will also need college and adult volunteers to help at camp. If you are interested in joining us let me know.

Friendship News.....

Time for another Friendship Luncheon, March 8th. This one is going to be somewhat different. Betty Williams will not be catering the meal, health issues with her husband. Right now I'm not sure whether I will use Southern Heritage, BBQ, etc. or Golden Corral, fried chicken and vegetables. With either one it is very important that I have an accurate number as either of these require it and I must have the number on Tuesday AM, March 6th. There will not be extra food.

I have a guest from Macon that is planning a bus trip to Ark Encounter, Creation Museum and other side trips that we can be a part of this September or October. She will give all the details of this trip.
