

Awakening

Dear Church,

We have scheduled revival meetings, March 22–25, but we know that only the Lord can send revival. I pray that the Lord will sweep across our church and manifest Himself in wonderful ways—that God would truly awaken our hearts and minds to His greatness. I pray that God would awaken us to the men and women He has called us to be; a church that is on Mission for Him. I pray that our revival would be an Awakening that peels our hearts and minds away from the worthless trivialities of the world. What we are endeavoring to experience on March 22–25 is only possible if the Lord prevails upon us. There is certainly nothing that we can do to manufacture a manifestation of God’s presence. We can’t make people hunger and thirst for righteousness. We can’t make even a one sinner turn from their wicked ways. We can’t fill our church with the fruit of the spirit. So—we pray. Thank you for agreeing with me in this prayer for our church. I have sensed your support accompanied by a great spirit of expectation.

Everything we hope to experience ultimately depends upon the Lord. However, let us not forget that we have a spiritual responsibility in this endeavor. God is calling us to repent. Peter preached in Acts 3:19, “Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord.” Seasons of refreshment will come from the Lord as we are obedient to repent of our sin. If we don’t repent of our sin, seasons of refreshment will not come. We can’t hope to experience powerful revival while holding stubbornly to sin in our life. Something must change in me for me to experience revival. Something must change in you for you to experience revival. When we turn from sin, a glorious time of refreshment will come from the Lord; God has promised it.

David prayed in Psalm 139:23–24, “Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me and lead me in the way everlasting.” God knows everything about you. There is not a word on your tongue or a thought in your mind that God does not know completely. God is familiar with all your ways. Ask Him to reveal to you any offensive way. If the Lord has already done so, don’t run from your sin. Don’t explain it away or attempt to redefine it. God sees. God knows. Confess it and turn from it.

I can assure you, we are going to have some great music and wonderful preaching. But the revival will not be a result of great preaching or wonderful music. It will come as God responds to the humble confession of our sins with a glorious and wonderful time of refreshment. I believe that God has a season of refreshment for us.

*Hallelujah, thine the glory. Hallelujah amen.
Hallelujah, thine the glory. Revive us again.*

With Love,

Pastor Kevin
