WISDOM

GOOD JUDGMENT

It is really hard to make the right choice all the time. There are so many different things that try to tell me what to do in tricky situations. Sometimes my friends tell me one thing and my parents another. Or what I really want to do might be different than what the Bible tells me. At times, even the things I watch on TV or see in video games make me uncomfortable because I know God wants me to think about better things. When we have to make a tough choice, it is always best to listen to God.

Who are some of the people or things that try to tell you what to do or how to act? How do you listen to God?

Is it hard for you to make the right choice?
How do you know if you are making the right choice?

FAMILY TABLE TALK

RIGHT ACTION

It can feel uncomfortable to be different. It takes courage and strength to look or act like God wants, especially when your friends don't follow God. It is great for you to go to church and say you believe in God, but the way we act should show others how important God is in my life. We should follow God in every choice and every action we make, both big and small. When I do the right thing in small choices every day, God will give me the courage and strength to follow him in the bigger and tougher times.

Talk about one time where it was hard for you to do the right thing—even when you knew it was what God wanted. Why was it hard? What did you do?

Do other people know that you are a Christian?
How do they know? Do you act different from others?

WONDER

EXPRESSION

God made all of us unique—every single one of us is designed to share our thoughts, feelings, and worship in a different way. And that is OKAY! We don't have to be the same as anybody else, but God does want me to use the special talents, likes, and imagination that he gave me to worship him. Think about how creative God is—he made the sun, the plants, the entire world, even YOU—and he made you creative just like him. See if you can discover the special way he made you for worship!

Where do you feel closest to God—is it in the outdoors, in your room, at church, reading the Bible, or somewhere else? Why do you feel close to God there?

Do you think you are creative? How can you use your creativity to worship God and share him with others?
