Frequently Asked Questions

1. How much does it cost?

- a. Team fee of $900 plus the plane ticket
 - i. Plane tickets vary by price but generally fall in the range from $450-900

2. What will we do?

- a. A huge part of this trip is to love the kids and the tias (ladies who take care of the children). This can look like playing games and making crafts to doing daily devotions.
- b. We take jeans/shoes to the kids for them to have for the upcoming school year.
- c. We can do other tasks specific to the skills of the people who go, if you have a special skill/talent let us know!
- d. We may do any other task that the home asks of us: organize a room, decorate, remodel, we try to be flexible and help where we can!

3. Is it safe?

- a. This trip has been taken for many years and the safety of the group has never been a concern. Commissioned International and the staff at GSCH do well to keep us safe.
- b. The home is surrounded by a gate and has guards at the entrance for the children's safety.

4. What is the travel like?

- a. We try to find the cheapest flights, flying out of Louisville or Nashville and usually connecting in Miami. Each flight is about 2 hours.
- b. We are bussed from the Comayagua airport to the children's home. The bus ride is 3 hours, depending on traffic, and is on windy roads. Dramamine is recommended for people with motion sickness.

5. I want to go. Now what?

- a. Contact Emily Pawley or Pam Goodin. They will send you the link to the application! The church can get you in contact with Emily or Pam.
