

HIGH SCHOOL

2021-2022 CLASS INFORMATION

Course Title: Personal Finance

Cost: $180

Description:

The student will study personal finance using an award winning Dave Ramsey curriculum written for the High School Student in mind. In addition to the practical, real-world personal finance instruction, the student will learn from a personal instructor, videos, and a workbook filled with graphs, charts, case studies, relevant statistics, quotes, and related scripture references. Personal Finance is a required .5 credit for graduation in the state of TN.

Prerequisites: none

Grade Level: 9-12 Grades

Schedule: Wednesdays, 10:45-12:15, 16 weeks beginning August 4

Class Size: 10 minimum for class to form

Textbooks: The Foundations in Personal Finance for Homeschool Student Text, Dave Ramsey, 2014. ISBN: 9781936948192

Supplies:

Instructor: Leana Holcomb

Leana graduated from Maranatha Baptist university with a BA in Business Management and Marketing. After graduation, Leana worked for Business Marketing Company and later managed a gym and worked as a personal trainer, running her own business for 10 years. Currently, she is an Affiliate Broker with Kaizen Realty. She and her husband, Russ, taught Financial Peace for adults numerous times, and now she is excited to teach teens all she has learned through her years in business and through her personal experience.

