

Series: Who Is Your One?
Sermon: Anything Short of Sin
September 17, 2017

1. If you weren't a Christian, what kind of lifestyle would you be living?

2. The first value statement from Lifechurch.tv in Oklahoma states, "We will do anything short of sin who do not know Christ. So, in order to reach no one is reaching, we must do things no one is doing."
  - A. What do you think of this statement?
  - B. As a group, brainstorm ideas that Capital City should be doing to reach people no one is reaching.

3. On a scale of 1 to 10, rate your desire to reach someone who does not know Christ. Share your answer with your group.

4. Does it make a difference in your desire to reach someone for Christ, if you know the person or not? Should it make difference?

5. Do you expect non-Christians to act like Christians? Why or why not?

6. When you encounter a non-Christian whose values are different, how do you tend to think about them and behave toward them?

7. Read Matthew 9:9-13.
  - A. What do you notice about Jesus in this passage?
  - B. What do you notice about Matthew and the other tax collectors?
  - C. What do you notice about the religious leaders?
  - D. Are you more like Jesus or the religious leaders in your attitude toward "tax collectors"?

8. What could you do to be more intentional toward non-Christians?

9. As a group, pray for the “one” that each member is thinking of.
