

Series: This Is Us
Sermon: Re-Modeling
May 28, 2017

1. Share one of your most embarrassing moments.
2. Did you do your homework from last week's message? What did you learn?
3. Who do you consider to be really important? Who would you say is a V.I.P?
4. Who would you consider to be one of your earliest and first loves?
5. What are your thoughts on having a "soul-mate"? How has this idea affected relationships in today's culture?
6. Read Philippians 2:1-11.
  - A. What does humility mean?
  - B. What does it practically mean to value others better than yourself? (v. 3)
  - C. What does it mean to have the same mindset/attitude as Jesus? (v. 5)
  - D. How did Jesus show humility and value others? (v. 6-8)
7. What would our relationships look like if we followed the principle...Him first, others second and me third? What actions would be exhibited in our lives?
8. What keeps you from showing humility and valuing others in your relationships?
9. What is one action step you can take this week to empty yourself and value your spouse or someone you are in relationship this week? Share this step with your group.
