

Series: FACES of God
Sermon: Care for One Another
July 8, 2018

1. How do you handle situations when confrontation is necessary?
2. The phrase “It’s ok to be not ok” was used in the service. What does this mean to you?
3. There certain “unhealthy” strategies we use when we stumble and sin. Which strategy do you tend to drift toward?
 - A. Hide it
 - B. Escape from it.
 - C. Play the victim
 - D. Celebrate it
4. What would be a better strategy that could bring about real healing and dealing?
5. What kind of characteristics would be displayed for church to be place of healing with truth and grace?
6. Read Galatians 6:1-7.
 - A. Why does Paul start out by saying, “Brothers and sisters”?
 - B. What does it mean “to restore that person gently”?
 - C. We are instructed “carry each other’s burdens.” How does a disciple go about this?
 - D. What is the difference between carrying your own load and carrying each other’s burdens? How does this help you with the big picture of caring for one another?
7. “If you are not willing to be part of the solution, don’t confront.” Why would this suggestion be made?
8. Pray for:
 - A. The “load” that individual group members may be carrying.
 - B. The group to “carry each other’s burdens” in a manner that honors God.
