

Series: Rehab
Sermon: Connect
June 10, 2018

1. Describe a friend you have. Don't tell their name, but tell why you consider them a friend and what characteristics they have that make it good to be in a friendship with them.
2. Which of the following is your greatest struggle?
 - A. Your mouth.
 - B. People pleasing.
 - C. Obsession and preoccupation (Social media, a hobby, etc.)
 - D. Work.
 - E. Food.
3. Have you ever tried to stop something that you knew you shouldn't do or wasn't good for you? Share your outcome.
4. Read Jeremiah 2:13?
 - A. What are the 2 sins of the people?
 - B. What do you tend to substitute for God?
5. Share your thoughts on the following statement, "It is nearly impossible to heal in isolation." Do you agree or disagree?
6. Read Genesis 1:1 – 2:18. How can man be alone (2:18) when he is with God and sin has not entered the world?
7. Grace-Truth friends were described in the sermon. They were "God honoring, fully disclosing, and confessing friends." How would someone go about developing friendships like that?
8. Heather Koop said, "People bond more deeply over shared brokenness than they do shared beliefs." What do you need to do to pursue deeper relationships?
