

What people are saying after reading Footprints of Courage

“The story of Chris Jenkins is so unbelievable, it’s hard to comprehend it’s true. Footprints of Courage exposes real life details of the business student’s murder and the bungled police investigation that are so chilling; you’ll wish it was fiction.”

Kristi Piehl | CEO | Media Minefield

“I could not put the book down, finishing it faster than any book I’ve ever read....ever.”

John VanScoy | St. Jude Medical

“I was so moved by Footprints of Courage, it almost left me speechless. I pray its effects will be felt across the world.”

Rich Meiss | President | Meiss Education Institute

“It is beautifully written. At times, I forgot I was reading a true story.”

Judy Campbell | President | JC Strategies

“Footprints of Courage: it is one big cohesive quilt; inspiring, a non-fiction crime thriller, a tear-jerker, humor that warms the heart, and most of all a loving tribute and immortalization of Chris Jenkins's life here.”

Deborah Stelfox | Seattle, WA

“After reading this book I honestly have a whole new outlook on life and especially my own future.”

Jason R. Hellem | friend of Chris

“Footprints of Courage reminded me what a difference one voice can make!”

Lisa Richter | Minneapolis, MN

“I am the indexer Jan selected for her book, Footprints of Courage. It was truly a privilege to be a small part in telling Chris Jenkins’s story – a real life story of love, loss, courage, and ultimately the triumph of the human spirit when facing extreme adversity.”

Galen Schroder | Dakota Indexing
