Connect Groups thrive on participation! The purpose of this covenant is to help you discuss and clarify your group's goals, expectations, and commitments.

Connect Groups: Their Purpose

Connect Groups exist to promote spiritual maturity and personal growth through meaningful Christian relationships and study of God's Word (Romans 8:29 & Hebrews 10:24-25). We'll do this by focusing on four primary activities:

SHARE

Each week we'll take time to share what is happening in our lives. At first this sharing will include planned "sharing questions". But after the first few weeks, it will become more informal and personal, as we feel more comfortable.

STUDY

Each week we'll study a section from God's Word that relates to the previous Sunday's sermon. Our goal is to learn how to live out our Christianity in everyday life.

Our goal is to interact interpersonally on the topic and how we can practically follow Christ, not to answer all the questions.

SUPPORT

Each week we'll learn how to take care of one another as Christ commanded (John 15:9-13). This care can take many forms such as prayer, encouragement, listening, challenging one another, and meeting real needs.

SERVE

Spiritual Growth is fostered not only by what we gain through the support and input of others, but also through service to others. The role each of us fills is important to the health of the church and for us to be the hands and feet of Jesus to our community (Ephesians 4:11-16). Throughout the quarter, it is our hope that you can find and/or be affirmed in the ways God has designed you to serve, and make a difference in God's Kingdom.

Five Marks of a Healthy Group

For our Group to be healthy, we need to...

1. Make spiritual growth our number one priority (Romans 8:29).
 - Tangents – they are okay sometimes, but sometimes we need to be refocused. We'll need to keep spiritual growth our focus and stay on topic.
2. Accept one another (Romans 15:7). Acceptance vs. Tolerance. Church discipline
3. Take care of one another (John 13:34).
 - When crisis happens we're there to help with support, prayer, encouragement, listening, meals, or whatever the needs might be.
4. Treat each other with respect (Ephesians 4:25-5:2).

- Listening to one another, if one's talking let's all listen, nothing worse than two conversations going on at once.
 - Our goal is to listen, not give advice. (Advice is given when asked for.) We are not here to judge or fix – unless someone asks. An example of giving advice is by saying, "Well this is what I think you should do." On the other hand, that doesn't mean we can't question what is said or what someone is doing.
 - Some of us have the gift of gab, also known as a dominator – be careful, I (as a leader) might have to help you.
 - Be careful of gossip prayers. For example, "we need to pray for (person's name) because they are doing this ..."
 - No put-downs.
 - What is said here, stays here – unless of course what's shared would be harmful to yourself or someone else, and/or if I (as the leader) need to seek counsel on how to respond to an issue in the group.
5. Keep our commitments to the group (Psalm 15:1-2, 4b).
- Please give us a call if you can't make it to Connect Group so we know what's going on and how to pray for you.
 - *Connect groups are closed groups. They are not open for anyone to join after the first meeting. If someone would like to join the group then it must be discussed and decided by the whole group.

Guidelines & Covenant

1. Dates

We'll meet on _____ (day of the week) for _____ weeks. Our final meeting of this quarter will be on _____. Fill in blanks

2. Time

We'll arrive between _____ & _____ and begin the meeting at _____ and end at _____. We'll spend approximately _____ minutes in study/discussion, and _____ minutes in prayer/sharing.

Fill in blanks. Explain break-up of the meeting.

3. Children

Group members are responsible to arrange childcare for their children. Nursing newborns are welcome provided they are not a distraction to the group. Leader and Host will have to decide about child-care before sign-up sheets are displayed. A few options are: 1. Chip in together (per child) to hire a baby sitter. 2. Individuals find own child-care. The ideal is for children not to be in the home; however, this may not be a realistic option for you. Do the best you can to not make children a distraction for the group.

4. Study

Our studies will focus on the same topic covered in the previous Sunday's sermon. Our goal is to learn how to live out our Christianity in everyday life. Not to answer every question.

5. Prayer

Praying for one another. Remember – being forced to pray in a group or just the idea of it can cause people to avoid your group. If you have new people in your group, you might want to say something like this: "It's exciting to see how God works in our lives through prayer. We also realize prayer in groups is something many have never done. Know that you will never be forced to pray."

6. Homework & Attendance

Joining a Connect Group requires a commitment to attend each week and do the homework ahead of time. Obviously, allowances are made for sickness, vacation, work conflicts, and other special events—but not much more.

This commitment is the key to a healthy group.

If we cannot come to a meeting, we will call _____.

- Emphasize the importance of the commitment to attendance and preparation. (A good group starts with good preparation!)
- Make sure that everyone is with you. (Do we agree? Is this what we want? Make eye contact, etc.)
- Most weeks require 15-20 minutes of homework to prepare for the group study and discussion.

7. Desserts Have everyone sign up for a night to do dessert.

8. Social & Service Project(s) Emphasize the importance of a quarterly social and service project. As a leader and host, have 2 or 3 suggestions ready and 2 or 3 potential dates. Choose a date or ask the group to bring their calendars next week. New groups are preferred to have their social by mid-quarter.

9. Other Is there anything else we want or need to add to this covenant? Have the members sign the group covenant now if they are ready. If not, they are welcome to wait until the third week of the quarter.

We agree together in Christ to honor this covenant.

(To be decided by each person on or before the second week.)

Everyone needs to sign the covenant and returned to Associate Pastor of Education and Youth no later than the third week of the Connect Group quarter.
