CARRYING THE LIGHT

GLORY REVEALED

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, YEAR A

The light has come. We've received the light and the call to bear the light to all the nations. Got it. Can do. Easy peasy, lemon squeezy. Right?! Well...maybe not. The rubber meets the road when we begin carrying the light into a world that likes to hide things in the shadows, push people to the margins, and threaten anyone who declares that things should be otherwise. We quickly discover that carrying the light doesn't get rid of fear. But, as the psalmist demonstrates this week, the light does show us how to not let fear control us and keep us from living in the glory of God's salvation. I'll let Derek Weber's Preaching Notes speak for themselves, but I do want to pull out a few of the themes he unpacks to inform how we plan worship this week.

First, Psalm 27 shows us that we are called to meet fear with love—not the "warm and fuzzy" kind of love, but the love of togetherness with God and one another. So, during the call to worship or opening prayer, consider how you can acknowledge the fears and troubles that congregants bring with them into the space. This might look like a liturgy of welcoming or a call-and-response prayer that names our troubles and hands them over to God, who tends and cares for the things that weigh on our hearts. In keeping with Psalm 27:4, how might you name your gathering—not the physical space, necessarily, but the people who come together in the space—as part of God's dwelling place? How do we come home together as a community in and with God?

Second, having found our refuge in God, we respond in joyful worship. This joy is not a neglect or willful ignorance of the problems in the world, but a choice to respond in joy because of who God is and what God is doing among us. Perhaps you sing "I have the joy, joy, joy, joy down in my heart" as a sung response during the prayers of the people, or maybe you have a witness to joy during the response to the proclamation. Or instead of passing the peace, you could pass the joy as a community. If all else fails, let the children lead. We often need the perspective of a child to help us recognize the small, everyday opportunities for joy that surround us!

Finally, seek God. Now, that probably sounds too simplistic and trite, but it is all too real. Search for God at work in the world. Remind the community that we are gathered as followers of God's good news. Not the bad news, not the tragic news, and certainly not the "I'm giving up and moving to Mars" news. We are people of good news because our story begins, ends, and roots its meaning in God's life-giving, never-failing love.

Take a Look Back and Let's Have a Discussion...

Recap of Sermons from January 4 and 11, 2026 (See insert page in the bulletin)

As we welcome the New Year, let us gather in worship, hope, and faith, trusting in the blessings God has prepared for us in 2026. We encourage you to invite family, friends, and neighbors to join us each Sunday to share in the joy and renewal we find in Christ. Together, let us seek God's presence, grow in faith, and celebrate the new beginnings He gives to us freely in worship together.

"See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland." -- Isaiah 43:19 (NIV)

In Christ,

Pastor Earnie

2026 STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN PLEDGE

Ephesians 6:17-18: "Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God." And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests." Commitment to Tithing- As we embark on our stewardship journey, we recognize the importance of our giving and how it connects us to God and our church community. Here are three essential points to consider: 1. The Word of God: Our giving is rooted in Scripture. By honoring God with our wealth, we align ourselves with His purpose and provision. 2. The Power of Prayer: Every pledge begins with prayer. Seeking God's guidance allows us to make informed and faithful decisions about our contributions. 3. A Step of Faith: Pledging requires us to trust in God's provision. When we step out in faith, we open ourselves to His blessings and the work He can accomplish through us. Amen.

Sermon Recaps from January 4 and 11, 2026

Part I - "How to Begin Again" (John 1:1-5)

1. Author and Audience

The Gospel of John was written by the Apostle John, one of Jesus' closest disciples. Most scholars believe he wrote this Gospel between 65 and 80 AD, during a time of great change and tension for early Christians. John's audience included both Jews and Gentiles who were learning how to live out their faith in a world filled with different cultures and beliefs. He wrote so that people would know Jesus is the Son of God and that believing in Him gives true and lasting life.

2. The Incarnation: God Became Flesh (vv. 1-3)

John begins his Gospel by connecting back to Genesis 1—the story of creation—where God brought everything into existence by His word. John says, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God... Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made” (John 1:1-3). This means Jesus was not only present at creation, but everything was created through Him. Then John makes it clear: “The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us” (John 1:14). God Himself came to earth as a real human being. Jesus is fully God and fully man, and because He lived among us, He understands our lives, struggles, and needs—making Him completely relatable to us.

3. Jesus, the Light and Life (vv. 4-5)

“In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it” (John 1:4-5). Jesus gives spiritual life and reveals God’s truth. Darkness—sin, confusion, despair—cannot defeat Him.

Part II – “Is God Doing the Most?” (John 1:6-18)

4. God’s Active Work: Raising Up a Witness (vv. 6-8)

God not only sent Jesus but also sent John the Baptist as a forerunner, fulfilling Isaiah 40:3 (NIV): “A voice of one calling: ‘In the wilderness prepare the way for the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God.’” John the Baptist’s mission was to point people to Jesus, the true Light, so that all might believe. John the Baptist, who prepared the way for Jesus, was himself a unique figure—he wore camel’s hair and ate locusts and wild honey (Matthew 3:4). He didn’t come to fit anyone’s expectations or mold, but God chose him with his distinct personality and style to do His will. This reminds us that God uses all kinds of people, with different backgrounds and appearances, to accomplish His purposes.

5. Receiving and Rejecting the Light (vv. 9-13)

Many did not recognize or receive Him (John 1:10-11). But “to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God” (v. 12). New life and identity begin when we trust and follow Jesus.

6. God Came in the Flesh—Jesus, Fully Human and Fully Divine (vv. 14-15)

John 1:14-15 says, “The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth... John testified concerning him.” This means that God Himself entered our world as Jesus—taking on a real human body, yet never ceasing to be fully divine. Jesus is not just a figure from history; He is the same yesterday, today, and forever—present at creation, working in our lives now, and reigning over the future. He is omnipresent (everywhere at once), omnipotent (all-powerful), and omniscient (all-knowing). In Jesus, we see God’s glory up close: His power, love, and truth made real in human form, so we can truly know Him and trust Him with every part of our lives.

7. Grace Upon Grace—What It Means (vv. 16-18)

“From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace” (John 1:16). This means God’s kindness, help, and forgiveness are given to us in endless supply through Jesus Christ, but it is not a license to sin. His coming, ministry, death, and resurrection open the door for us to experience God’s grace every day. This is offered to us as a “means of grace” through Christ’s Baptism, which marks us as God’s own, and in Holy Communion, which reminds us of Christ’s sacrifice.

As recipients of grace and followers of Christ, we are called to practice spiritual disciplines—prayer, reading and meditating on Scripture, fasting, spreading the Gospel, evangelism, and serving others. These habits help us grow in faith and reflect God’s love to the world. As followers of Jesus, who is both fully God and fully human, we are called to live out our faith by practicing spiritual disciplines such as prayer, Bible reading, fasting, sharing the Gospel, evangelism, and serving others. Jesus taught us to forgive others as He forgave us—showing mercy but also setting healthy boundaries when needed. Our daily lives become a testimony to God’s grace when we live this way. Jesus reminds us in Matthew 5:16, “Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.” When we forgive, serve, and let our light shine, we are living proof that we can begin again with God and His Word. Remember, God has always done the most for us—giving His Son, His Spirit, and daily grace so we can keep starting fresh. With Him, every day is a true new beginning, and He will do the Most in our lives!

Takeaways: How to Begin Again and Let God Do the Most!

- * New beginnings start with Jesus (the Word), who is God in human form and knows our every need.
- * Grace upon grace means we are forgiven, loved, and helped by God every day through Jesus and the sacraments.
- * We live out our faith with spiritual disciplines: prayer, Scripture, fasting, sharing the Gospel, and serving.
- * We are called to forgive others as Jesus forgave us, with wisdom and love. God sent John the Baptist to prepare the way; now, we are called to prepare the way for others by letting our light shine.

Will you receive God’s grace, forgive others, practice these disciplines, and let your light shine this year? With Jesus, every day is a chance to begin again.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Apostles' Creed UMH No. 881

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
the third day he rose from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.
