Closing Prayer and Blessing of the Meal Pastor Kelley

You are invited to join the family for a meal after service. The family would be pleased if you would stay and share with them your memories of Noble.

Noble Searer Jr., 91, of Sebring, Florida, formerly of Goshen and Wakarusa, passed into Heaven surrounded by his family on Nov. 5, 2024.

He was born on June 27, 1933, in South Bend, Indiana, to Noble L. and Una (Bowers) Searer. Noble met Martha Schorr while serving in the U.S. Army, stationed in Kaiserslautern, Germany. They were wed in Wiesbaden, Germany, on Dec. 3, 1954. They raised their family in the Wakarusa and Goshen area, with Noble working in the RV industry, farming and retiring from the Elkhart County Highway Department.

Noble never knew a stranger, and made many friends along the way. Noble loved restoring antique and classic automobiles and belonged to several auto clubs. He and Martha enjoyed participating in parades and other activities with their cars. After 64 years of marriage, Martha passed away in 2018. On April 23, 2021, Noble married Grace Moser, and they spent the next several years enjoying their time together in Sebring. She survives along with his daughters, Eveline "Evi" (Kim) Hershberger, Goshen, and Michele "Shelly" (Perry) Edblom, Dorchester, Wisconsin; his son, Frank (Beth) Searer, Mosinee, Wisconsin; seven grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, and one to be born in February 2025. Also surviving are two brothers, Robert and Norman Searer; stepdaughters Dolores (Roger) Lechlitner and Cathy (Kim) Whitehead, both of Wakarusa; stepson Edwin (Gloria) Moser, Nappanee; and eight step-grandchildren and 20 step-great-grandchildren. Preceding Noble in death were his first wife, Martha, a grandson, Grant Searer, a great-grandson, Andrew Searer, and four siblings, Audrey Berger, Keith, Richard and Max Searer.

We would like to thank the staff at Good Shepherd Hospice House in Sebring who took such loving care of Noble and his family in his last days.

In Loving Memory of Noble Searer
