She was born July 23, 1941, in Elkhart, to Virgil Ray & Nina A. (Reynolds) Davy. On December 10, 1961, she married Ronald U. Breniser. They were married for 64 years.

Surviving are husband, Ronald, Elkhart; children, Ronald Breniser II, Goshen; Renee "Chris" (Brian) Bontrager, Clarinda, Iowa; & Richard A. (Preciel) Breniser, Los Angeles, California; 5 grandchildren, Nicole (Nathaniel) Thatcher, Emily Bontrager, Nicholas Breniser, Audrey Breniser, Zechariah Breniser; 3 great-grandchildren, Owen Breniser, Joey Thatcher, A.J. Preceding her in death are her parents, sisters, Laura Billey, Bernice Krazit and Mary Whalen and granddaughters, Abby Breniser and Natalie Bontrager.

Roberta worked as a secretary for an insurance company as well as a clerk typist for the Welfare Department. For several years she also worked at home as a colorist for local photography studios. She worked 16 ½ years at Greencroft before retiring. She was an active member of Beulah Missionary Church.

In her spare time, Roberta enjoyed reading, playing the piano and singing. For several years she sang in a trio called "Praise Three" with her daughter Chris and niece Jeanie Martin. She enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, even though she did not get to see them often. She demonstrated her love in many ways and was a true servant to her family. She enjoyed baking cookies with her children and grandchildren. She often wrote notes of encouragement to others as well as sending cards. She was a prayer warrior and often wrote her prayers in her notebooks.
