

3:30 DRAMA GROUP

Drama Camp Registration Letter 2026

Hello, everyone! My name is Julia Nelson, and I am the director of the 3:30 Drama Group.

I am excited to tell you about a drama camp opportunity for students in 5th to 12th grade!

The 3:30 Drama Group's name is based on John 3:30, where John the Baptist says of Christ, "He must increase, but I must decrease." The group's mission and prayer is to produce Christ-honoring plays that bring the gospel to the mission field right here in our local communities, challenge students to follow wholeheartedly after Christ, and equip students with communication skills that they can use in everyday life for Jesus.

From a young age, I have been passionate about storytelling. I have been involved in theater since fourth grade and have directed the 3:30 Drama Group for two years. I have experience in multiple facets of theater including acting, directing, script writing, sound, costumes, makeup, sets and props, and audio.

So Many Miracles: The Story of George Mueller

This spring, the 3:30 Drama Group will be performing So Many Miracles: The Story of George Mueller. Our drama camp intensive will teach students various aspects of theater as they work behind the scenes and on stage to bring this production to life in just one week. Students will be challenged in their walk with the Lord as they listen to devotions and chapel messages throughout the week.

George Mueller lived a riotous life as a divinity student studying to be a minister, even though he was not a Christian. When he attended a prayer meeting with a friend, George observed people who had a genuine relationship with God. Moved with conviction, he cried out to God for salvation.

Eventually, George started an orphanage. He determined not to ask any person for any of their needs—no matter how great the needs became—but to rely on God alone to supply everything. George yearned for Christians to see that our God still hears and answers prayer—and the orphanage was a clear, tangible demonstration of that.

George Mueller's story of prayer and faith and his testimony of God's faithful provision have impacted countless believers throughout history. So Many Miracles will challenge both students and the audience with its themes of trusting God for every need, the power of prayer, and the constancy of God's promises in Scripture.
