A Word from our Pastors . . .

Make a small improvement in one habit today. Too many people make a list of resolutions that are too big to keep. But if you resolve to change one habit the change can be dramatic.

Paul commended the Thessalonians, but he told them to keep growing—to please God more and more. And he asked God to sanctify them “through and through” (.1 Thessalonians 5:23, NIV).

As we start this new year we want to grow in the Lord. It happens as we continually resolve to make small improvements to our everyday habits and to do so more and more .
