A Grain of Precious Wheat Has Fallen . . .

John 12:24 - "Unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much fruit."

By now most of us have heard of the tragic death of Charlie Kirk. Founder of the "Turning Point" organization, Charlie travelled to colleges & universities all over the country declaring his faith in Jesus Christ and challenging students to peacefully debate their differences of opinions in all areas of thought and politics. Thousands of young people have been impacted by his life. God-fearing, bold, and uncompromising, it would seem his death is a silencing of a Messenger.

But perhaps his life is a Precious Seed which, in dying, will bear fruit beyond our imagination. What was meant to scatter and divide, will gather and unite. What Satan meant for evil, God will turn for good and for His Glory.

This act of violence is evil and wicked beyond comprehension...and we are called to mourn with those who mourn. Yet in the great mystery of God, such moments like these can ignite what comfort, ease, and convenience never could. Let the grief of a Nation turn into groanings of deep intercession and praise. Let this "grain of wheat" falling to the ground become the catalyst for a great turning, where America's heart is broken, humbled, contrite, and made tender again before the Lord. May Charlie's Kirk's life, and now his passing, be gathered into God's eternal purposes and produce a Great Harvest that draws a Nation back to the only One who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
