1 John 3:11-18

11 For this is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another. 12 Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous. 13 Do not be surprised, my brothers and sisters, if the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love each other. Anyone who does not love remains in death. 15 Anyone who hates a brother or sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life residing in him. 16 This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. 17 If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person? 18 Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.

What actions of Cain were evil? Why? (Genesis 4).

Hate is a strong word. Do you feel like the world hates you?

Should the world hate you? Should you hate the world (1 John 2:15)?

V14 says that we have already passed from death to life. How have we passed from death? Are you alive spiritually? How do you know?

Vv 16-18, moves the theory of Christianity into the practice of Christianity. Share a time when you have loved others beyond words or speech. How might we as a lifegroup take up this charge?
